Re: Marc Harris

We are a Canadian company with joint ventures with all the principal Cuban government scientific organizations and are familiar with most of the organizations, including the non-scientific organizations described in Havana Holdings web site.

To my certain knowledge none of his claims are true regarding his ability to deliver on his reported investment opportunities.

His web site mostly implies and does not claim to have the opportunities but then his audience might not appreciate the fine difference. I can assure you he is dismissed in Havana.

Sincerely,
